Become an SI Pro

When you become an SI Pro you are not simply joining a group of trained professionals, you are joining a family of individuals who all care centrally for your success.

Design & Installation

Our authorized dealers are trained in the art of creating personalized experiences that make your home a dream home. Screen Innovations dealers are master craftsmen and can ensure your custom technology matches perfectly to your lifestyle.

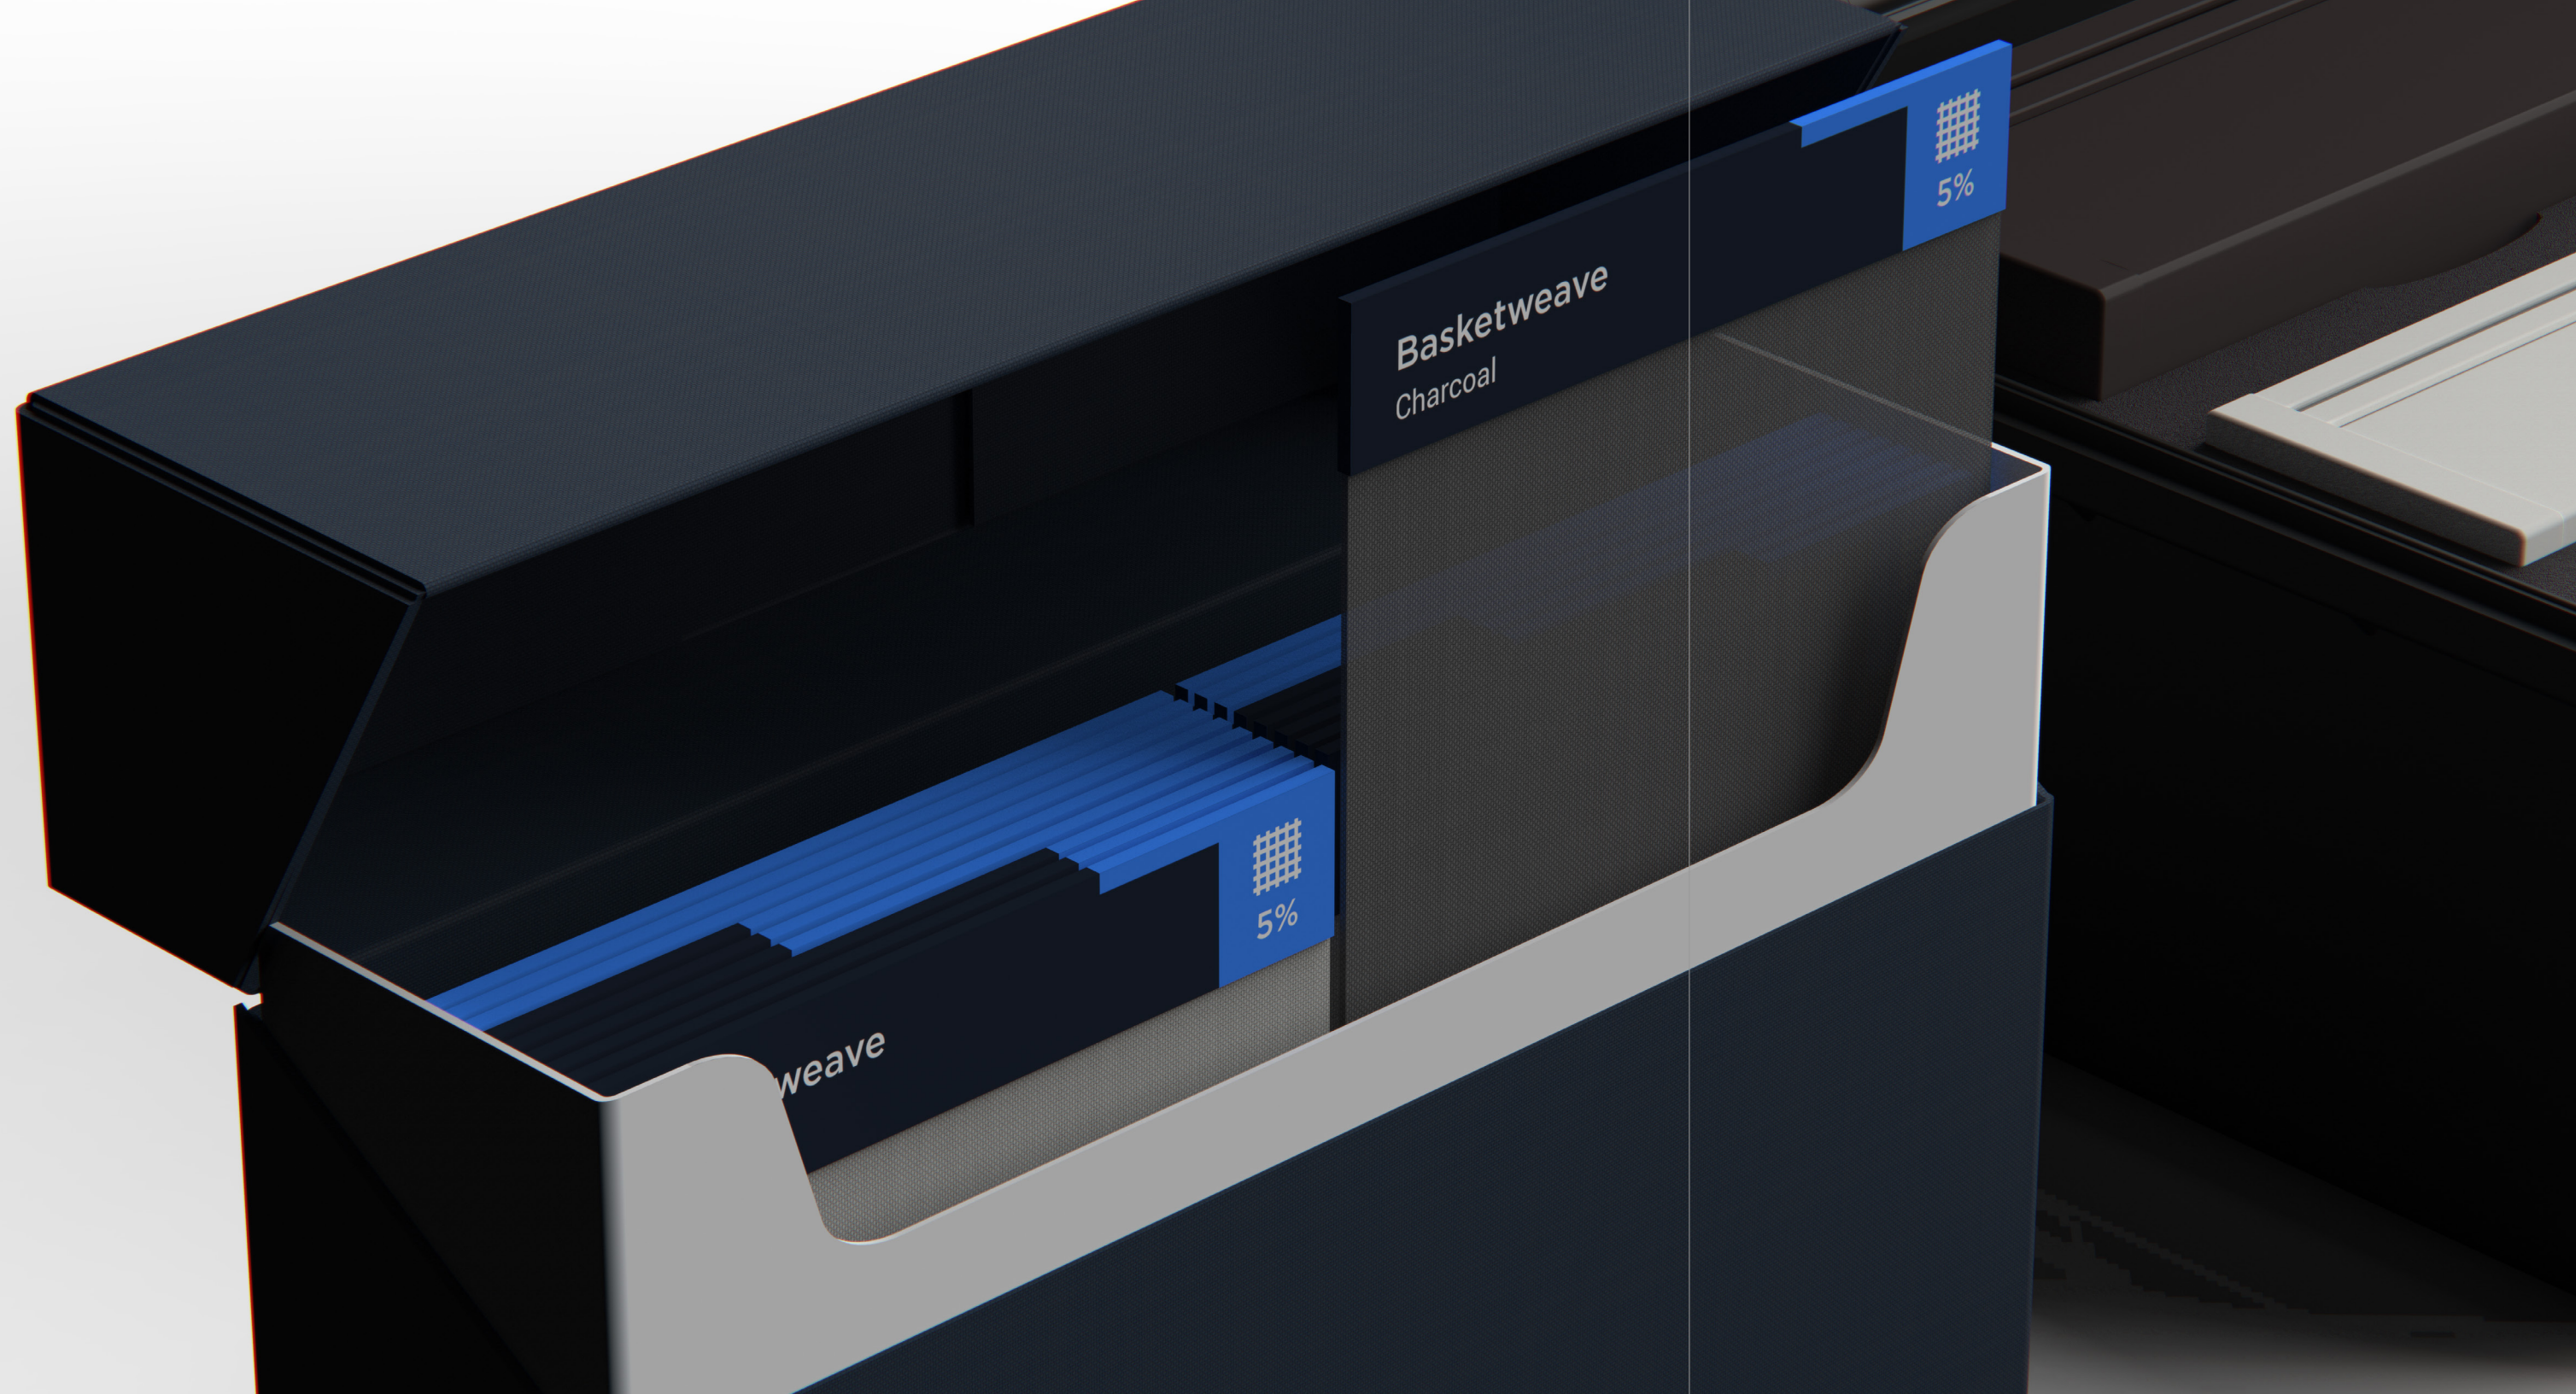

World Class Solution

We started SI with one goal, to give people something they never had before. That passion still drives our design and solutions-oriented product innovation.

Proven Success

When working with an SI authorized dealer, you can rest on the training and knowledge they've received from not only their own extensive experience but also over 40 combined years of experience in our proven processes.

Fabric For Any Design

With access to thousands of fabric types, colors and options, rest assured we've got your windows covered.

SI Design Services

We are not a traditional manufacturer and dealer, we are partners. Why? We are customers too, and we know the importance of doing the job once and doing the job right.
